

Leigh Todd

Managing Director, Portfolio Manager,
Mellon

Leigh Todd is the director of global equity research strategies and a portfolio manager at Mellon in the U.S. large cap growth equity and focused large cap growth equity strategies. She is also a senior research analyst on the global equity research team, covering the consumer sectors.

Before joining the firm, Leigh was a member of the U.S. large cap portfolio management team at State Street Global Advisors in the global fundamental strategies group. Prior to that, she was a member of the small and mid cap investment team, where she was responsible for the technology, consumer staples, and transportation sectors.

Leigh holds the Chartered Financial Analyst designation and she is a member of the CFA Society Boston.

EDUCATION:
Certified Financial Planner

Lehigh University
B.S. Economics, 1994

WORK HISTORY:
Mellon
State Street Global Advisors

2001- Present
1996 - 2001

LEHIGH
UNIVERSITY

College of Business