Fall Forum 2022 Supply Chain Economics and Your Bottom Line

We had an outstanding Fall Forum 2022 held in person on November 3rd and 4th, with 184 registered participants. A highlight video made up of short segments from each of the seven presentations can be seen below. Attendees noted the large number of takeaways that could be implemented in their own companies and the many opportunities to network with practitioners across multiple industries.

Lehigh Business Supply Chain Risk Management Index

For the first time since the creation of the LRMI in the third quarter of 2020, there has been a reduction in all 10 categories of supply chain risk. In addition, the average risk index of 65.04 is the lowest it has ever been, suggesting an overall reduction in supply chain risk in the 4th Quarter.
