TALENT AND TECHNOLOGY - THINKING OUT OF THE BOX
NOVEMBER 2-3, 2023

SPEAKER BIO

EMILY DESTEFANO

DIRECTOR STRATEGIC PROJECTS, DORMAN PRODUCTS

Emily DeStefano leads the design of Dorman’s overall network strategy with the critical goals of maximizing customer experience and mitigating costs. This includes ownership of Dorman’s Integrated Project Planning + Execution process and driving a strategic shift to marry the right product lines with the right site capabilities – including specialized automation.

Emily has worked for Dorman products for 8 years, holding 6 progressive roles across multiple functions, including sales, supply chain, and operations. Since joining operations in 2023, Emily has led the implementation of Dorman’s first 3PL site and launched Dorman’s first annex location for managing slow moving inventory. Emily designed the supporting processes to select, plan for, and launch projects successfully in the Dorman network. She is currently working on her Executive MBA at UCLA, with an expected graduation date of June 2024.
