

ADVISORY COUNCIL MEMBER

Center for Supply Chain Research at Lehigh

SCOTT PALOCHIK
Director, Business Development

ESPI
(Enterprise Systems
Partners, Inc.)

Scott R. Palochik is the Director of Business Development at Enterprise Systems Partners, Inc., with over 25 years of experience in sales and marketing. Holding a degree in Visual Communications/Advertising from the Art Institute of Pittsburgh, Scott has a 20-year background in the commercial print industry. He is renowned for his award-winning advertising campaigns for ESPI in 2013 and 2014.

Scott has been a pivotal figure in the manufacturing industry's community dialogue; he has served as a founding member and chair of the Greater Lehigh Valley Chamber of Commerce Manufacturing Council and as a board member for various chambers and councils.

Scott extends his impact beyond professional circles through his contributions to youth sports as a swim coach, displaying his dedication to community and youth development. Scott is also a published comic book writer with his series "MARCVS" through Dreamscape Publishing.