LEHIGH UNIVERSITY

Undergraduate Business Minor

The minor that gives you a major edge.

The undergraduate business minor exposes non-business students to the cross-functional and cross-organizational realities of today's business environment. The minor prepares students to effectively participate in business decisions made by firms and non-profit organizations.

For Students Enrolled In

- College of Arts and Sciences
- College of Health
- P.C. Rossin College of Engineering & Applied Science
- IDEAS

Program Goals

- To provide non-business students with the knowledge and skills which allow them to make more informed business decisions.

- To enable non-business students to supplement their major studies with the business tools that are attractive to employers.

Program Application

- Submit the online application form with the following documents:
 - Application Essay
 - Resume
- Program admissions may be competitive.
- Accepted students are notified prior to fall semester registration.

The business minor is not a substitute for a business degree.
It is a supplement to students' major studies.
