

CSCRL FALL FORUM

RISK AS A COMPETITIVE ADVANTAGE: WINNING IN AN UNCERTAIN WORLD
NOVEMBER 5-6, 2026

ABSTRACT

IT'S A WRAP: CLOSING OUT 2026, AND PREPARING FOR 2027 AS A SUPPLY CHAIN LEADER

AUTUMN BAYLES
EVP GLOBAL SUPPLY CHAIN & GPO'S
ARAMARK

2026 has been an interesting year to manage supply chains, given unusual volatility in several key risks driven by geopolitical events, government trade negotiations, advancement of AI in cybersecurity, and commodity market fluctuations.

Looking ahead to close out the year and plan for 2027, what are the key actions supply chain executives can take to ensure they are best prepared for what lies ahead and position themselves for success in an ever-changing and challenging landscape?

Center for Supply Chain
Research at Lehigh

COLLEGE OF BUSINESS | LEHIGH UNIVERSITY